

Navigation101 Standard

Navigation101 Standard enables you to increase the number of college and career ready students in your school. Through the completion of outcome-based online lessons, students develop short and long-term plans that connect to personal motivations, skills, credentials, and experiences. Automated assessment and reporting enables advisors and parents to track student progress online. Students access a personalized career center and portfolio as part of Nav101 instruction.

NAVIGATION101 LESSONS – Use Nav101 to teach college and career navigation skills to your students. This interactive set of more than 20 lessons uses innovative web technologies to produce more college and career ready students in your school. All participating students create a 12th grade transition plan.

AUTOMATED ASSESSMENT – Save time by letting Nav101 evaluate and report on the six attributes of a purposeful college and career ready student: self-awareness, college and career knowledge, short and long-term plan readiness, qualifications, financial readiness, and commitment. Nav101 provides educators with an easy-to-use never-before-seen view into student readiness.

DIGITAL ADVISOR AND PARENT REPORTING – Report student performance through Nav101's automated Readiness Report Card. This online communication tool enables schools to provide individualized student readiness reports to parents, staff, and students. Track student success with easy-to-use advisory tools.

PERSONALIZED INFORMATION TOOLS – Provide post-secondary, career, and financial aid options to each student via a personalized career center and online portfolio. This unique online resource offers a diverse set of choices for Four-Year College, Two-Year College, Career and Technical Education, Military, and Workforce opportunities.

Fully Integrated & Customized

The Navigation101 Program can be tailored to your school's size or any existing systems you already have in place. Learn how easy it is to transform your school – contact us today at ready@envictus.com.